Certified Fire Fighter, Fire Inspector, EMT-I

Rock began his career in the fire service as a volunteer firefighter while studying at Southern Polytechnic. After obtaining his undergrad Rock became a career firefighter with Paulding County Fire/Rescue while working for a subcontractor as a project manager on his days off. In 2006, Rock accepted a Fire Protection Analyst position with Cobb County Fire & Emergency Services in the Fire Marshal's Office. Rock spent almost 8 years reviewing plans before advancing to the rank of Deputy Fire Marshal after obtaining his graduate degree in Fire Protection from California Polytechnic. Rock is currently managing field inspectors in the South District for the Cobb County Fire Marshal's Office. When Rock is not busy spreading the values of community risk reduction, he spends his time with his wife and three children on their small hobby farm.
